

Tusculum City Municipal Court

Judge: The Honorable Linda Woolsey

Court is in session on the third Monday of each month at 1:30pm

These court dates and times are printed on summons/citations at the time they are issued or served. Municipal Court, sometimes called "City court," hears cases involving violations of municipal ordinances. Most often, citizens appear in this court for speeding tickets and other traffic violations. However, this court also hears codes violations such as loose animals, unkept properties, junk violations and other City ordinances that seek to ensure the public safety and welfare.

General Sessions Court

Judge: The Honorable Kenneth Bailey

Every county is served by this type of court of limited jurisdiction, which hears both civil and criminal cases. Civil jurisdiction is restricted to specific monetary limits and types of actions. Criminal jurisdiction is limited to preliminary hearings in felony cases and misdemeanor trials in which a defendant waives the right to a grand jury investigation and trial by jury in Circuit or Criminal Court. Adults arrested or issued misdemeanor summons for crimes committed within the city limits of Tusculum are processed at the Greene County Detention Center. Typical cases include: driving on suspended license, DUI, theft, assault, etc. First appearance court dates and times are assigned at the time of arrest or summons issuance by the officer. Sessions Court is located at:

101 S. Main St.

Greeneville TN 37743
